Having A Faith Attitude

On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side." Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him. And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"

Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?"

(Mark 4:35-40)

By Pastor Owen Alston

There is so much for us to learn about faith simply by observing the life of Jesus. In this article, I want to take a look at the practical side of faith, because this is exactly how Jesus lived. We are taught by the Word of God that the just shall live by his faith: "Behold the proud, His soul is not upright in him; But the just shall live by his faith" (Habakkuk 2:4). Faith that is not practiced is not faith at all. "Are you willing to be shown [proof], you foolish (unproductive, spiritually deficient) fellow, that faith apart from [good] works is inactive and ineffective and worthless?" (James 2:20 AMPC).

In our general text, Jesus demonstrates His God-given authority and activates His faith in the middle of the storm. This is the faith attitude that I am looking to point out to you. There are always enough storms around to keep us strong in faith. The key to our developing this kind of faith is our continuous hearing of the Word until we believe enough to do what it says. God gives us instructions in the book of Proverbs, "My son, give attention to my words; Incline your ear to my sayings. Do not let them depart from your eyes; Keep them in the midst of your heart; for they are life to those who find them, And health to all their flesh" (Proverbs 4:20-22).

This present pandemic we are encountering is the perfect storm for us to demonstrate the faith and authority that God has given to the church. I beg of you to rebuke the fears and frustrations holding so many captive. Jesus is our example: He rose up with a faith attitude and rebuked the storm. We, the Church have the same authority today to rise up and rebuke storms that try to take us captive. Consider what Jesus said to us in Luke's gospel, "Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19). It is the power of the Holy Spirit that gives us this boldness to rise above our fears and take our rightful place in fulfilling the calling that God has given us. Oh, my dear brothers and sisters, let us rise up and take our rightful place and be the light God has called us to be. Remember what Jesus said to His disciples, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?"

Suppress fear with the Word of faith.

Faith keeps FEAR in check

God's Word is Truth

So is my word that goes out from my mouth: it will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

By Deborah Peniston

-Isaiah 55:11

There is an old expression, my word is my bond. It means that your word is a bond, and a bond is an agreement with legal force. People use this expression to show that they stand behind the words they say. If I say it, I mean it...it is a promise. God's word is His bond. He said it, He meant it, and He is asking you to take Him at His word.

Many times throughout the scriptures, God has asked as He did in Numbers 14:11 when He asked Moses, "How long will these people reject Me? And how long will they not believe Me, with all the signs which I have performed among them?" Even today, with a Bible filled with miracles, He is asking, "How long...?" His word is truth. "For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us" (2 Corinthians 1:20).

"Therefore you shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land of which the Lord swore to your fathers to give them, like the days of the heavens above the earth" (Deuteronomy 11:18-21). His word is clear and He has given it to us so that our days will be multiplied on earth. His word should be in us and before us; we are to bind or fasten it tightly as a sign of a promise made a long time ago. If we do this, we should never walk in fear.

But now, thus says the Lord, who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you. For I am the Lord your God, The Holy One of Israel, your Savior; I gave Egypt for your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place. Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honored, and I have loved you; therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life. Fear not, for I am with you" (Isaiah 43:1-5a). Then He says, "Put Me in remembrance; let us contend together. State your case, that you may be acquitted" (Isaiah 43:26). Yes, He said we can remind Him of His promises to us. When the enemy comes to steal the Word from us, we can say, Lord, You said that You would never leave me or forsake me. You said that You healed me and delivered me from the hand of the enemy. Reminding Him of His word, reminds us of His promises to us and that they are binding.

I am reminded of the story of the Shunammite woman found in 2 Kings 4:8-37. She was a wealthy woman who asked her husband to make a small room for the Prophet Elisha. She knew he was a "holy man of God, who passes by us regularly" (2 Kings 4:9). For this, Elisha wanted to bless her, but she asked for nothing. Gehazi, his servant told Elisha that she did not have a son and that her husband was old. Elisha told her that about that same time in the following year, she would have a son and she did. After some years had passed, the boy died. She took her child and laid him on the bed in the room she had made for Elisha. She then set out to find him. She did not tell her husband or Gehazi, but went straight to the man of God and said, "Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?" Then he said to Gehazi, "Get yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but lay my staff on the face of the child." And the mother of the child said, "As the Lord lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So he arose and followed her. (2 Kings 4:28-30) She contended with the man of God, and told him she would not leave him until he did what he said. She knew his word was his bond, and she was not going to release him from his promise. He honored his word and her son was raised from the dead.

This is a picture of God and His children. "...And they drew near to the gates of death. Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions" (Psalms 107:18b-20). That is why He said to "lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates" (Deuteronomy 11:18-20).

As we are in the last days before Jesus's return, we should not be moved by the events around us. He foretold us what was to come, but more importantly, He sent His Word and left His word to act as an agent on His behalf. We are to keep it before our eyes, and in our hearts. We should speak it and repeat it and believe it and teach it. He even gives us an illustration of how His word works. "For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:10-11).

God loved us so much that He gave us Jesus. "Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. We love Him because He first loved us" (1 John 4:17-19).

As He is, so are we in this world. We are His children because of a covenant promise He made and His word is His bond, an agreement ratified by the blood of Jesus. We stand on His Word for His Word is truth.

 PRAYER OF SALVATION *****

DO YOU KNOW...?

GOD LOVES YOU

JESUS DIED FOR YOUR SINS

YOU CAN RECEIVE JESUS NOW AND KNOW GOD'S LOVE

The basis of the Prayer of Salvation comes from Romans 10:9-10, "If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved."

However, I would like to direct you to Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by Grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God; Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Grace is mentioned over 100 times in the Bible. Grace is God's unmerited favor and because of God's grace, we receive eternal life and a promise of heaven. Grace is necessary for salvation as we cannot do enough good works or make enough right choices to earn our salvation. The Bible teaches that we are justified by the grace of God (Romans 3:24; Titus 3:7). Justified means declared not guilty. When we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, all charges against us are dropped and we are free from sin. When God forgives our sins, the record is wiped clean. It is as if we had never sinned.

A preacher once explained grace with this acronym:

God's - Riches - At - Christ's - Expense

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD:

Heavenly Father, In Jesus' name I repent of my sins and open my heart to let Jesus come inside of me. Jesus, You are my Lord and Savior. I believe you died for my sins and you were raised from the dead. Fill me with your Holy Spirit. Thank you Father, for saving me in Jesus' name. Amen.

If you've prayed this prayer of salvation with true conviction, you are now a follower of Jesus.

Welcome to the family of God! We encourage you now to find a local church where you can be baptized and grow in the knowledge of God through His Word, the Bible.

A PRAYER FOR ALL HARMONY'S GRADUATES

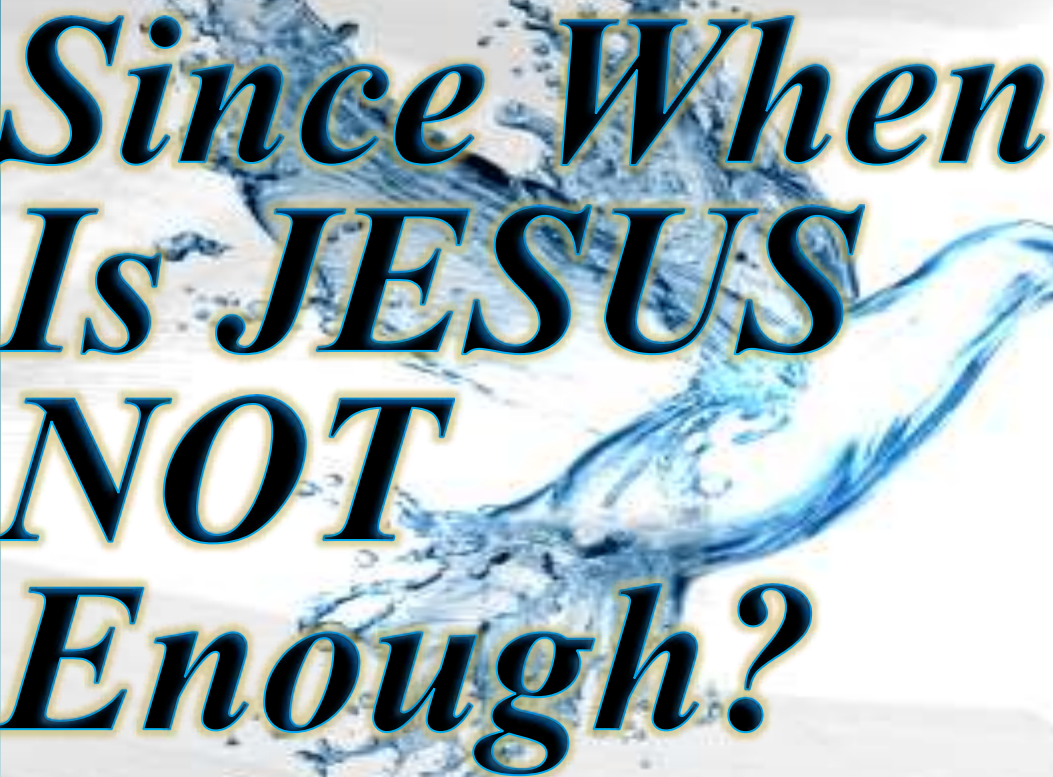

Keana Alfonso, Imani Bray, Thadeus Bullock, Cia Jenkins

“But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.”

(James 1:5)

Dear God, we ask that you help our children to walk in your wisdom and grace. We pray for spiritual eyes and discernment in all things. Help them to be wise leaders and influencers in this generation, not conformed to the world, but transformed by your power. We ask that you would equip them with all that they need to make a difference for your purposes. Help them to live as salt and light in a dark world that so desperately needs to know your truth. We ask for your power to help them to walk continually in honesty and integrity. Build within them deep godliness, that they would be more concerned about their character than their reputation. We pray that they would seek to bring honor to You throughout their lives, that they would have a vision and heart for the world. Extend their boundaries and give them incredible influence with people and nations. Make their hearts and spirits open to every plan and purpose you have for them, and to be willing to boldly go wherever You call.

Since When Is JESUS NOT Enough?

By: Brenda Benjamin

I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have perfect peace and confidence. In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer (take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted)! For I have overcome the world. (I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you)! John 16:33(AMPC)

The question of “Since when is Jesus not enough?” has been resounding in my spirit, since the beginning of 2020. In January, the Holy Spirit spoke to me and said the following: “It is time to take the ceiling off what we believe God can do! Stop containing Him with small thinking, because He is limitless!” I didn’t at the time realize how profound that statement would be for me for what was ahead for the Kingdom of God, every believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, and the world.

Everyday since the beginning of March we have been inundated with opinions, facts, theories, stories from the mainstream media, friends, family members, and even strangers about the status of the world’s condition, regarding the death toll, new diagnosed cases of corona virus, racial unrest and division, economic turmoil, political upheaval and disloyalty.

Jesus said, in His Word that these times would be coming, in the above scripture as well in Matthew 24:6-7 (NKJV), “And you will hear wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet for nation will rise against nation, and there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes and these are the beginning of sorrows."

If Jesus has told us through His Word to prepare us, why are we allowing the evil reports to terrorize, frighten, and take us off the course and calling that God has ordained for each believer to impact this world that doesn't know Jesus? Why are we the Body of Christ disturbed, unsettled, and caught unaware during these turbulent times?

Isaiah 53:1 (AMPC) states the following: "Who has believed (trusted in, relied upon and clung to) our message (of that which was revealed to us)? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been disclosed?

The following are 7 questions that each of us should read, ponder and meditate on about our journey with the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, who is our Helper and Who is the revealer of all truth.

Since when is Jehovah Rapha the Lord Who is our Healer not enough?

Exodus 15:26(NLT) states "He said, If you will listen carefully to the voice of the Lord your God and do what is right in His sight, obeying His command and keeping all His decrees, then I will not make you suffer any of the diseases I sent on the Egyptians, for I am the Lord who heals you."

1 Peter 2:24(AMPC) states "He personally bore our sins in His (own) body on the tree [as on an altar and offered Himself on it], that we might die (cease to exist) to sin and live to righteousness. By His wounds you have been healed."

Since when is the Name of Jesus not enough?

Philippians 2:9-11(NLT) states "Therefore, God elevated Him to the place of highest honor and gave Him the Name above all other names, that at the Name of Jesus every knee shall bow in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, and every tongue declare that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

Luke 10:19

Powerful

Every name has to bow at the authority and power of the Name of Jesus. Covid-19, cancer, sickness, diseases, poverty, lack, anxiety, depression, fear, terror, sadness, confusion, prejudice, turmoil, including principalities, powers and all the evil works of satan the destroyer and his cohorts and forces!

Since, when is the power and the authority given to every believer in Jesus Christ not enough?

Luke 10:19(AMPC) states “Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and (physical and mental strength and ability) over all the power that the enemy possesses); and nothing shall in any way harm you.”

2 Corinthians 10:4-5 (AMPC) states “For the weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of the flesh and blood], but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds, [Inasmuch as we] refute arguments and theories and reasonings and every proud and lofty thing that sets itself against the [true] knowledge of God; and we lead every thought and purpose away captive into the obedience of Christ (the Messiah and the Anointed One)."

Ephesians 6:18 (AMPC) states "Pray at all times (on every occasion, in every season) in the Spirit with all (manner of) prayer and entreaty. To that end keep alert and watch with strong purpose and perseverance, interceding in behalf of all the saints (God's consecrated people)."

Since when are the covenant promises of victory given by Jehovah Nissi our Banner, Covering and Victory not enough?

1 Corinthians 15:57 (AMPC) states "But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory (making us conquerors) through our Lord Jesus Christ"

1 John 5:4-5 (NKJV) states "For whatever is born of God overcomes the world and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?"

1 John 4:4 (AMPC) states "Little children, you are of God (you belong to Him) and have (already) defeated and overcome them (the agents of the antichrist) because He who lives in you is greater (mightier) than he who is in the world."

Since when is the perfect peace of the Lord Jesus Christ, who is our Prince of Peace not enough?

John 14:27 (AMPC) states "Peace I leave with you; My (own) peace I now give and bequeath to you. Not as the world gives do, I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. (STOP) allowing yourselves to be agitated and disturbed; and do not permit yourselves to be fearful and intimidated and cowardly and unsettled."

John 14:1 (AMPC) states "DO NOT let your heart be troubled (distressed, agitated). You believe in and adhere to and trust in and rely on God; believe and adhere to and trust in and rely also on ME."

Since when is God's Word filled with His faith not enough?

Hebrews 4:12 (AMPC) states "For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power (making it active, operative, energizing, and effective; it is sharper than any two edged sword penetrating to the dividing line of the breath of life (soul) and (the immortal spirit), and of joints and marrow (of the deepest part of our nature), exposing and sifting and analyzing and judging the very thoughts and purposes of the heart."

FEAR NOT
— for I am —
WITH YOU

Isaiah 55:11 (MSG) states "So will the Words that come out of My mouth not come back empty-handed. They'll do the work I sent them to do they'll complete the assignment I gave them."

Since when is Jehovah Shammah the Always Present God not enough?

Hebrews 13:5-6 (AMPC) states "Let your character or moral disposition be free from the love of money (including greed, avarice lust, and craving for earthly possessions) and be satisfied with your present (circumstances and with what you have; for He (God) Himself has said, I will not in anyway fail you nor give you up nor leave you without support (I will) not, (I will) not, (I will) not, in any degree leave you helpless nor forsake nor let you down (relax My hand on you)! (Assuredly not)!

Isaiah 54:10 (AMPC) states "For the mountains should depart and the hills be shaken or removed, yet my love and kindness shall not depart from you, nor shall My covenant of peace and completeness be removed, says the Lord, Who has compassion on you."

In conclusion I want to leave you with the following scripture:

Psalms 89:33-34 (AMPC) "Nevertheless, my loving-kindness will I not break off from him, nor allow my faithfulness to fail (to lie and be false to him).

My covenant will I not break or profane, nor alter the thing that is gone out of My lips."

Please read and meditate on these scriptures as you victoriously come through this time of great change knowing that God will never forsake His people and Jesus is the only answer and always has the answer!!!

Be Blessed, Be Healed and Be Whole, because The Great I AM gave His best and ultimate gift for you!!!

John 14:27

The Spirit of Fear and the Word of God.

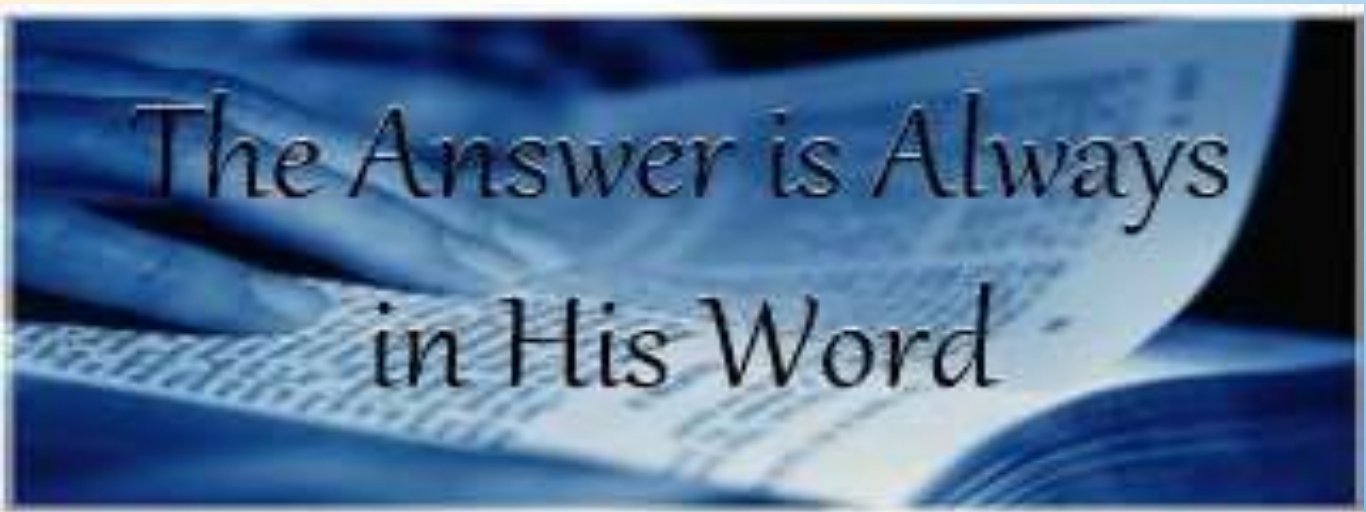

By Michael Clausen

It is easy to fall into the trap of fear especially these days, but as it says in the Word, “God has not given us a spirit of fear....” (2 Tim 1:7), but the scripture also tells us what He has given us: “power, love and a sound mind.” The believer has no need to be in fear, but for the unbeliever in Proverbs 10:24 “the fear of the wicked will come upon him.”

For those who give in to it, fear can be overwhelming, “Trouble and anguish make him afraid. They overpower him, like a king ready for battle” (Job 15:24). “Oh, how they are brought to desolation, as in a moment! They are utterly consumed with terrors” (Psalm 73:19). We need to always remember that God has us in the palm of His hand and will never let us fall into anything that we cannot get out of, especially if we lean on Him for comfort and protection. “Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and your staff, they comfort me” (Psalm 23:4).

It is most important to remember that God always has our back, even when it seems He is nowhere to be found. Remember the poem “Footprints” where God says, “it was then that I carried you.” Even in the most difficult of times and in the harshest of circumstances, we must always remember to lean on the Lord for help and guidance; He will never let us down. Sometimes it feels like God is not paying attention, but remember, He is always there and is always paying attention. There is a well known saying that “when the going gets tough the tough get going,” but we as Christians who live in the Body of Christ know that we are always protected, even when things are, seemingly, at their worst. Psalm 91 says “He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.” Remember that he is our refuge and fortress, our God in whom we will trust. Verse 3 assures us, “He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence.”

We seemingly have a lot to worry about with the way things are going in the world. Remember, when things are going sour, God can make all things come together for our good, even when we do not see how it could ever turn to good. God has a plan for each one of us and tells us that we have nothing to fear: “But whoever listens to me will dwell safely, and will be secure, without fear of evil” (Proverbs 1:33). One of the enemy’s greatest tools is fear and he will use this against us at every opportunity. Just remember, “For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.” The spirit of fear is a demon that comes upon us in our darkest hours and tries to convince us there is no hope of getting out of whatever circumstances we find ourselves in. Remember always, God will not let us ever be put into any circumstance we cannot handle. Be strong in the faith, do not let the spirit of fear get ahold of you, trust in God always and lean not on your own understanding. This too shall pass.

Faith

Belief in God's Promises to Us...

The

Of Life

Sunday, August 2, 2020

Dear Harmony Church Family,

I was inspired by today's message to share a small excerpt with Pastor Alston. On the night of July 31, 2020, God not only gave me revelation on the purpose He has for my life, but He revealed the purpose of life in general and how His creation is expected to remain in a ceaseless communion just as Christ and God are in an unbreakable fellowship. God is so abundant in nature that He took even more time to explain to me how Satan has swayed earth's inhabitants. Since the beginning, Satan has been perverting the will of God in a way that prompts the world to move in a direction opposite of God's plan for us. If believers are to escape the lies of Satan, they must fully submerge themselves into Christ.

I have been asking God His plan for me for over a decade and never heard anything back. After not hearing anything, I went back into the world and ultimately back into the wilderness. However, just like the prodigal son, I eventually realized my Heavenly Father not only had the answer I was searching for, but, all He initially wanted was for me to come home, open His door, and enter into His presence. After the decision was made to come back home, God was faithful and after a consistent diet of hearing, doing, and obedience, God spoke to me and revealed a term I call, "The Second Baptism." In short, the second baptism occurs when an inconsistent believer finally decides to pick up his cross, throw his life away, and fully submerge his spirit into the water well of Jesus Christ. However, this time the believer does not come back up for air. He remains in Christ and depends on the breath of Christ for oxygen.

With all this in mind, I have attached the excerpt God used my fingers to type. I sent it to Pastor Alston to confirm his anointing. Only in Christ can two believers receive the same revelation.

The misinterpretation of technology has fogged a pre-established understanding of life which is elementary at best. There are over 7.5 billion people on this planet and yet a huge portion of the population has been duped to believe that life is about anything other than people. The culprit derives from the spirit of self or selfishness. From the beginning of time any creation, invention, or business that was designed to bring people together has accelerated in prosperity (Homes, Ford T-Model, Airplanes, Cell phones, Social Media...the list goes on). Humans are social beings and the "only" species on this planet that utilize a spoken language to communicate. Furthermore, we are all born with a natural inclination to not only depend on, but fellowship with one another. For example, a baby inside or outside his mother's womb is fully dependent on the union, fellowship, or bond of his mother. This chapter of life provides the first clue regarding the purpose of life. However, somewhere along the line mankind has developed its own ideology of life. As a result, the true meaning has become perverted as people replace humility with selfishness, ultimately polluting the original definition. Now, instead of using God's gifts of sociability, people buy homes to move away from other people. People buy cars to drive away from other people. People buy plane tickets or planes to fly away from other people. People buy cell phones to degrade other people and take to "social" media with the sole intent of taking photos called "selfies". The perversion of sociological advancements has changed the course of life on earth. To redirect this current course, I can only ask that we continue in the pursuit of knowledge of Jesus Christ and continue in a manner that denounces the promotion of self but encourages the spirit of humility.

"...But truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord" (Numbers 14:21 NKJ).

"Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others. Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;" (Philippians 2:3-11).

Pastor has spent many years encouraging believers like myself, and I believe God commanded me to send my testimony to serve as encouragement for him. Thank you, Pastor Alston, for your consistency and the joy you express by simply doing what God has called you to do which ultimately fulfills your purpose.

Very Respectfully,

Joshua Scott
