Be Of Good

COURAGE

6 Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. 7 Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go. 8 This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.”

(Joshua 1:6-9)

By Pastor Owen Alston

God has desired a plan of success for everyone who calls on the name of Jesus. What are we called to do? We are called to simply take that which we have received and freely give to others. The Christian life really is simple. If we don't have anything, we don't have anything to give. But if the truth be told, we have the life of Christ dwelling within us. The bible says if any man be in Christ he is a new creation. With that being said, we certainly have something to give. The encouragement that I want to share with you is that this journey is not accomplished through human efforts. This work is done by the power of the Holy Spirit. In verse eight of our text, "This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night...." The power for us to be successful and courageous is in the word of God. In Hebrews chapter four verse twelve teaches us that the power is in the word- “For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.”

The power and perfection of the word is what allows us to prosper and have good success. Notice in verse nine of our text we are commanded to be strong and courageous and not to be afraid. As we develop a practice of the word, it will transform us from within. This is a process that takes time. The word of God works in the human heart the same way physical food works in the human body. Faith comes by hearing the word of God.

Being strong and courageous is an attitude. The power that’s in the word of God will allow for you to take on the same attitude that is in the word. The first change that you will experience will be the way that you begin to think. You begin to see yourself victorious. Your manner of speech will start to change. The last part of verse nine says – “... for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go”. Your confidence should always be in the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit. “Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?” (I Corinthians 6:19)

Being courageous is the attitude of all winners. Are you excited about your relationship with Jesus Christ and what He is doing in your life? If so, then I encourage you to reach out and encourage someone else that we can all labor together for the good of the kingdom that the earth may be filled with the glory of God. “But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord—” (Numbers 14:21)

Before and After

By: Janice Bright

It was the summer of 2003, when my daughter invited me to attend a Wednesday morning Bible study at her church. I went and the experience changed my life! I had never read the Bible before; I viewed it as a dusty old book written by men a long time ago. When the pastor opened the book and began teaching the text, I was intrigued and I wanted to know more. After just one visit, I was hooked. I came to Bible study and eventually church and in doing so I learned so much about God, faith, prayer, and the importance of reading the Bible. I joined the Harmony Ministries, USA church and I'm so glad I did. As the song goes, "I was lost, but now am found." I'm a new creation in Christ. After nineteen years, I can say I am still learning and still growing in my spiritual journey and my relationship with Jesus. Before Harmony, I had many misconceptions about God and Christianity that are probably not uncommon today. I thought that in sharing these, I might help others.

Before Harmony, I thought that God had a big book and was recording in it every bad thing I did. I knew I was a sinner but instead of trying to do something about it, I just kept living my life and hoping for the best. At Harmony, I learned that I could be set free from sin when I repented and accepted Jesus as my Lord and Savior. That's all it took; a sincere declaration that I'm sorry for my sins; please forgive me; Lord, I receive you as my Savior. The relief that followed was immeasurable. I had always viewed God as looking sternly at me with His arms folded. I was convinced that He didn't like me very much. At Harmony, I learned of God's love for me. He loved me enough to send His Son to suffer and die on a cross to pay for my sins (John 3:16). He loves me so much, He promises to not only forgive my sins but forget them too (Isaiah 43:25). His love for me is as high as the sky (Psalm 103: 11). To receive His love, I only have to believe it. Before Harmony, I thought being a Christian meant obeying a lot of rules, the do's and don't's, the Ten Commandments. Now I know there are only two commandments: "Love the Lord, Your God with all your heart, soul, and mind and love your neighbor as yourself." In doing this, I fulfill all the commandments ( Matthew 22:37-40).

God loves you. He is calling you. Don't let your fears and doubts and wrong thinking keep you away from Him. "Come taste and see that the Lord is good" (Psalm 34:8). He's waiting for you.

Taking Thoughts Captive

By Deborah Peniston

“For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ” (II Corinthians 10:4, 5 NKJV).

God uses the language of war. He tells us to fight the good fight of faith. He tells us to put on the full armor of God because He knows that despite the victory we have in Christ, the enemy still wages war on the minds of the believers. This battle began in heaven. Lucifer was able to convince some of the angelic hosts to believe a lie. He did it in the garden with Adam and Eve and he continues to do it today. God makes it clear that it is spiritual warfare, and our weapons are not carnal or physical but mighty in God for breaking strongholds and everything that causes confusion and distracts us from our purpose. The enemy does not have any new tricks. He attempted to exalt himself above God in heaven and Jesus said He saw him fall like lightning to the earth. The devil continues to wage war in the minds of believers here on earth by trying to exalt his lies against the truth, but God instructs us to take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ.

How do we take a thought captive? Captivity is the condition of being imprisoned or confined. To take a thought captive is to confine it, isolate and analyze it. If it does not align with the Word of God, then we should snatch it and cast it down before it takes root in our mind. These fiery darts of the enemy are intended to destroy our peace and steal our joy. Although to snatch it and cast it down is speaking figuratively, we have to be that aggressive in our battle for peace which is why we are instructed to use His weapons of warfare by putting on the full armor of God. “Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil” (Ephesians 6:10,11). God is being very clear here: it is a battle against the wiles, that is, the devious or cunning schemes or strategies the devil uses to manipulate and persuade people to believe his lies. He will use anyone, even those closest to us, to say or do things to send us reeling, but remember, “we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against powers, against rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places” (Ephesians 6:12).

God says we should take the “shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one” (Ephesians 6:16) because any time spent entertaining the lies of the enemy is wasted time. The Amplified Bible puts it this way, “Lift up over all the (covering) shield of saving faith, upon which you can quench all the flaming missiles of the wicked (one).” The Lord lets us know these fiery darts can be as strong as flaming missiles, but we are to be prepared by lifting the shield of faith. This shield, characterized as a broad piece of metal, is part of our daily armor used to protect us from his attacks. Our hearts are therefore protected and those darts or missiles will be extinguished before they come near our bodies. We should also “take on the helmet of imagination and every high thing that exalts itself against a

salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Ephesians 6:17) so if any dart or missile gets past the shield, the helmet of salvation protects our mind. The Holy Spirit lives in us and His sword will strike down every attack of the enemy. We stay built up or fortified by reading or feeding on the word daily to keep our strength.

“We are human, but we don’t wage war as humans do. We use God’s mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments” (II Corinthians 10:3, 4 NLT). Sometimes we need to talk to ourselves, and even yell to make it clear that we are Christ’s. “That utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak” (Ephesians 6:19, 20 NKJV). I believe, so I speak. “No weapon that is formed against you will succeed; and every tongue that rises against you in judgment you will condemn. This (peace, righteousness, security, and triumph over opposition) is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and this is their vindication from Me,” says the Lord (Isaiah 54:17 AMP). Even Satan bows to Jesus! He can say what he wants, but he is a liar and a defeated foe.

“Set your mind and keep focused habitually on the things above (the heavenly things), not on things that are on the earth (which have only temporal value)” (Colossians 3:2 AMP). We are instructed to think on those things that are true, noble, pure, lovely, “whatever things are of good report, if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things” (Philippians 4:8 NKJV). Keep control of your mind by taking thoughts captive and bringing them in obedience to the truth of Christ.

The Lord: My Husband

By: Brenda Benjamin

Fear not, for you shall not be ashamed; neither be confounded and depressed, for you shall not be put to shame. For you shall forget the shame of your youth, and you shall not (seriously) remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore. For your Maker is your Husband- the Lord of Hosts is his name- and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; the God of the whole earth He is called. Isaiah 54:4-5

We live in a world where not being married can make you sometimes feel left out, especially when you see couples who don't seem to truly appreciate what a gift they have been given in a wonderful spouse to share life with. I have questioned the Holy Spirit at times about when my time will come or has it passed me by without my knowing it.

On January 5, 2012, I was given a Word of Knowledge by a fellow intercessor in response to my praying for a husband. She told me the following, "The Lord has heard your prayer about a new husband and that He is preparing him for you as well as preparing you for him." She then gave me Ephesians 5:25, which states "Husbands love their wives as Christ loves the church and gave Himself for her." I thought this was odd, but I received the Word and went before the Lord to confirm what I heard and received. He acknowledged it and told me to stand because it would come to pass. Well, it is now ten years later and I am still standing. It has been difficult at times, but I know that the Lord God, my Father is faithful and He is not a man that He should lie.

In response to my prayer, the Holy Spirit's reply was the following: John 14:16 (AMPC), "And I will give you another Comforter, (Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengtheners, and Standby,) that He remain with you forever." The answer is not whether I have a human husband or not, what is important is always putting God first in everything. When my relationship with the Holy Spirit is my top priority and seeking God's Kingdom first, everything will be added to me. That was such an encouragement to me to know God has given me His best and I must embrace it whether I am married or not because I will never be alone. He is always with me, to talk to, laugh with, express my feelings to, and share my most intimate secrets with and I know they will never be revealed to another person.

When times of challenge come, He is always Standing by to listen, guide, instruct and direct me in the right direction. The Word of God says in Psalms 32:7(TLB), "You are my hiding place from every storm of life; You even keep me from getting into trouble! You surround me with songs of victory." Then in Psalms 32:8-9 (TLB), it says "I will instruct you (says the Lord) and guide you along the best pathway of your life; I will advise you and watch over your progress. Don't be like a senseless horse or mule that has to have a bit in its mouth to keep in line!"

The Holy Spirit like a faithful husband is always available for me to access His full attention at any time of day or night with His love, compassion, affection, counsel, comfort, or just the right Words in due season. I am so content with my Spiritual Husband that it doesn't really matter to me if a human husband comes along or not. I looked up the definition of "content"

For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord Of Hosts
is His name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel the God of the whole earth shall He be called.
Isaiah 54:5

in the Webster Seventh New Collegiate Dictionary and it said the following: freedom from care, worry, fear, anxiety, concern or discomfort; that sounds like the Word of God to me.

The Lord has been faithful beyond what words can express. He has given me a life that is filled with love, joy, (gladness), peace, patience, (an even temper), forbearance, kindness, goodness, (benevolence), faithfulness, gentleness, (meekness, humility), self-control, restraint, continence), according to Galatians 5:22-23 (AMPC). He has given me stability, steadfastness, and a greater understanding of who I am in Christ (Anointed One, and His Anointing). I am complete in Him, so I don't have to wait on someone else to make me whole or complete.

The Holy Spirit has revealed to me that during these last ten years He has shown me what a healthy Christ centered marriage looks like. He has given wonderful friends, who are divine connections, who have been in covenant marriages for 65, 50, 45, 40, 35, 30, 25, 20 years. I have witnessed these couples on a personal level, and they have consistently demonstrated the love of God to each other. They are Ephesians 4:32 (AMPC) "... useful and helpful, and kind to one another, tenderhearted, (compassionate, understanding, loving-hearted), forgiving one another (readily and freely) ...." That is what they practice every day, day in and day out!

The Holy Spirit has given me a final Word to stand on, Hebrews 6:12 (AMPC), "In order that you may not grow disinterested and become (spiritual) sluggards but imitators, behaving as do these who through faith (by their leaning of the entire personality on God in Christ in absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness) and by practice of patient endurance and waiting are (now) inheriting the promises."

I believe that the Spirit of the Living God is telling me to not lose heart and grow weary and faint in acting nobly and doing right, for in due time and at the appointed season I shall reap, if I do not loosen and relax my courage and faint! Galatians 6:9 (AMPC) It is all about trusting God and leaning totally on Him. If I can trust Him to select the clothes that I should wear every day. I surely can trust Him with my very life. Patience and faith are the power twins to inherit the precious covenant promises of God.

So, in closing, I am extremely grateful and thankful for EL SHADDAI-My Almighty God, JEHOVAH JIREH-My Provider and Financer, JEHOVAH SHALOM-My Peace, JEHOVAH ROHI-My Shepherd, JEHOVAH RAPHA-My Healer, JEHOVAH SHAMMAH-My Always Present God, JEHOVAH NISSI-My Banner, Victory, and Covering, JEHOVAH TSIDKENU-My Righteousness, and JEHOVAH SABAOth My Lord of Hosts, who will always protect me.

There is no better HUSBAND, than the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit, and these three are One! 1 John 5:7(AMPC)

The Holy Spirit Is NOT A Bird!

By Michael Clausen

Unfortunately, due to centuries of artists' renderings of the Holy Spirit as a bird, most people, including devout Christians do not really comprehend who and what the Holy Spirit is. We know that Jesus told us that He was going to send us a helper, but how often do we forget that this helper is a person, not just a "power" or "force" and most certainly not a bird! "But when the [a] Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify of Me" (John 15:26).

It is easy for us to picture Jesus as a man. We have direct quotations of things that He Himself said while He walked the earth about 2,000 years ago. We can glean from artists' renderings that Jesus had manly features and each of us has some image in our mind of what He must look like. We do not have a problem seeing the Son of God as a person because we have been taught that He is and will always be a Man and God, a theological concept called the Hypostatic Union.

Thanks in no small part to the paintings by Michelangelo on the Sistine Chapel in Rome, we can even have a mental image of God the Father in human form. Most of us envision the Father as an elderly man with long white flowing hair and a matching beard. There are countless paintings and images of what people have imagined the Father must look like. Much of the reasoning for the images of God the Father are based on the verse from Genesis 1:26 where God says on the sixth day of creation, "Let us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness." The likeness that He speaks of in this verse is that we, like God are triune being; in our case, we are Spirit, Soul, and Body. In the case of the Lord of all creation, Father, Son and Spirit.

What we need to keep in mind when it comes to the Holy Spirit is He is a person, has personality, and has will. The Holy Spirit is every bit the person we have no problem seeing in the Father and in the Son. In the novel/film The Shack, the Holy Spirit finally is rendered as a person in the role portrayed beautifully by actress Sumire Matsubara. While the primary tone of this story is one of pain, the underlying message is that God wants a relationship with us; all three parts of Him, each in their own personal way love us and want nothing but the best for us. The Trinity does not want us to be in pain or lacking any good thing.

During Praise and Worship, we sing songs to and about the Father and the Son. We praise and thank the Father and the Son, but how often do we praise the Holy Spirit or even thank Him for everything He has done? The fact is it is the Spirit who gets the work done. God the Father thinks it, Jesus “the Word” speaks the command, but it is the Spirit who enacts the manifesting of whatever blessing is coming our way.

We owe Jesus our devotion, and our gratitude for everything He did for us in paying the price for our sins, but when you think about it, we owe the Spirit an awful lot too. The Holy Spirit was the enacting power that brought Jesus back out of Hell and gave Him the power to rise on the third day. It was the Spirit who did the action of all the healings that Jesus declared and the moving force in the resurrection of Lazarus. The Holy Spirit is the mover and the shaker when it comes to the ideas that the Father has, the words that Jesus speaks. It is the Holy Spirit who does the work.

Each of us needs to spend some time in prayer and meditation on who the Holy Spirit actually is to us personally. We need to think about and pray about who the Holy Spirit really is in the grand scheme of things. We need to work on our thought life and prayer life and imbed in our hearts and minds the majesty of the Holy Spirit, giving him the full ability to work in our lives and minds. We often block blessings because as it has often been said, God is a gentleman and will not force His will, or his blessings, on anyone against their will. When He created us, He gave us free will. It is up to us to allow God to work in our lives, for our benefit. If we do not give the Holy Spirit the ability to work in our lives and in our best interest, how are we supposed to live our best, blessed, lives?

Thank you, Holy Spirit, for all you have done for me and for my friends and family. Thank you for all the blessings you bring into my life and for all that you will do for me in the future. Thank you for all the wonderful works you have done in this your creation. I praise you because you also deserve to be praised and worshiped and it is only right that I recognize you for being a person and not an abstract thought or energy force flowing through all of creation. Thank you, Holy Spirit, for forgiving my impertinence in not giving you all the credit and comprehension that should always be your just due.

*** PRAYER OF SALVATION *****

DO YOU KNOW...?

GOD LOVES YOU

JESUS DIED FOR YOUR SINS

YOU CAN RECEIVE JESUS NOW AND KNOW GOD'S LOVE

The basis of the Prayer of Salvation comes from Romans 10:9-10, "If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved."

However, I would like to direct you to Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by Grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God; Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Grace is mentioned over 100 times in the Bible. Grace is God's unmerited favor and because of God's grace, we receive eternal life and a promise of heaven. Grace is necessary for salvation as we cannot do enough good works or make enough right choices to earn our salvation. The Bible teaches that we are justified by the grace of God (Romans 3:24; Titus 3:7). Justified means declared not guilty. When we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, all charges against us are dropped and we are free from sin. When God forgives our sins, the record is wiped clean. It is as if we had never sinned.

A preacher once explained grace with this acronym:

God's - Riches - At - Christ's - Expense

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD:

Heavenly Father, In Jesus' name I repent of my sins and open my heart to let Jesus come inside of me. Jesus, You are my Lord and Savior. I believe you died for my sins and you were raised from the dead. Fill me with your Holy Spirit. Thank you Father, for saving me in Jesus' name. Amen.

If you've prayed this prayer of salvation with true conviction, you are now a follower of Jesus.

Welcome to the family of God! We encourage you now to find a local church where you can be baptized and grow in the knowledge of God through His Word, the Bible.

Living In The Overflow of Christ

By Steven Pereira

Romans 8:16-17 (NLT)

16 For His Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children. 17 And since we are His children, we are His heirs. In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God's glory. But if we are to share his glory, we must also share His suffering.

We join the gym. We join clubs. We join store club memberships. We join reward club restaurants, club Med and the list goes on. Then we join the body of Christ.

The BOC isn't like those other clubs. By the way some people talk, you would think they were. How many believers actually fully understood what happened to them? We join Club Christ and get a variety of lies about what we are getting into. "Oh, your life will get better." Instead, it got worse. They told me that God would return everything the devil stole. I cringed, and thought to myself he can keep it!

Let's face it, in the beginning of our membership (Lol), we understand and know very little of this club that is filled with many contradictions and beliefs. In Kyle Idleman's book Not a Fan, he takes you on an incredible journey to show how little we know about great sports figures. For instance, if you met LeBron James and had a conversation with him, you will be at a loss for words because you only know him by a limited pool of knowledge and secondhand information. Your knowledge of LeBron would be limited to "Google" knowledge. i.e. statistics, height, public quotations and comments he's made through the years, and marital status. Does this constitute you as an expert on everything LeBron? Absolutely not!

It's the same issue we have with Christ. We say that we want to live in the overflow of Christ. We mean well, our hearts are right, but we lack the discipline to study the Word and / or to believe what we are reading.

The biggest step to living in the overflow of Christ, is a simple affirmation. Remember that SNL skit that Al Franken did in "Daily Affirmations" with Stuart Smalley, where he sits in front of a mirror and tries to encourage himself? In some aspects that's what we need to do, the only thing is that The Lord leads us in the affirmations we need.

Our scripture verse 16 says "For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children."

We see a double entry Spirit and spirit. So many times we are trained to think Holy Spirit, but when we read further into the verse, we see he says, "In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God's glory." Paul is addressing a supernatural union between God, Christ = Divinity (Spirit) and carnal (spirit) bankrupt flesh.

Notice that God takes the initiative, "His spirit joins". This is a supernatural process, a powerful process. The Lord is not looking for shallow relationships. He wants a joining. That word "join" means primarily "to glue or cement together," then, generally, "to unite, to join firmly." It is used in the passive voice signifying "to join oneself to, to be joined to". (Vine's Complete Expository Dictionary).

Now we re-read the passage with our definition, "For his Spirit glues and cements and unites and joins firmly with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children." Any question or uncertainty as to what God's intention is has been blown out of the water! And it gets even better. God takes you out of the equation and makes the affirmation you needed to make for you. To AFFIRM means "intensive," and "to confirm, make sure", denotes "to assert strongly, affirm confidently". (Vines).

This union with Christ, this intense joining, cementing together, is where you can live in the divine overflow of Christ. It is the Divinity (Christ) that is doing all the heavy lifting. Praise God! All of The Godhead is working on your behalf to join you into the family.

Jesus sacrificed His own body and affirms you into the family of God based on His efforts and not your own, and we are transformed into heirs of God's Glory!! God's plan is to catapult us into the glory realm of God. When we live our lives together with Christ, we are living under the glory realm of Christ. I'm not talking about behavior modification. That's what the world does with its networks of psychiatrists and counselors. I'm talking about a spiritual transformation orchestrated by the Divinity of Christ. The only suffering that is involved in the process is NOT to let flesh get in the way and just trust and believe in the process.

At the last men's fellowship, Pastor shared a story about how he used to watch his mom can vegetables. He talked about how she was careful to make sure to fill those cans to the brim and how she would take a stick and slide it over the top of each jar. This was important in the sealing process. There could be no air in the jars; otherwise, the jars would not have an airtight seal and bacteria would grow inside the jar and then it would have to be thrown out. This was the way Pastor's mom trusted in the canning process; we need to trust in the processes of God. We have to trust Romans 8:16-17 and allow it to be the stick that keeps us level headed in these turbulent days. Jesus is coming, let's make Him proud!
